PUBLIC TRANSPORT

> BY RAIL

The Louvain-la-Neuve – Université station is directly linked to the junction of Ottignies, located on the Brussels-Namur line, with two trains an hour in each direction, including at weekends. Louvain-la-Neuve (not to be confused with Louvain, the French version of Leuven) can be reached in 30 minutes from Brussels, sometimes without changing trains.

From Namur or Charleroi

Coming from Namur or Charleroi, you need to change at Ottignies and take the train to Louvain-la-Neuve.

From Luxembourg

Coming from Luxembourg, get off at Ottignies (if you are on the EC 96 Iris or the EC 90 Vauban coming from Switzerland, you should change at Namur) and take the train to Louvain-la-Neuve.

From other countries

If you are coming from abroad, get off at Bruxelles-Nord if your train goes through this station. Otherwise get off at Bruxelles-Midi, point of departure for all trains to Ottignies via Bruxelles-Central, Bruxelles-Nord, Bruxelles-Schuman and Bruxelles-Luxembourg (previously known as Bruxelles-Quartier Léopold). Then take the train to Louvain-la-Neuve.

From Bruxelles-Midi

If arriving at Bruxelles-Midi on the Thalys or Eurostar, take the Namur–Luxembourg train, stopping in Ottignies. In Ottignies, take the train to Louvain-la-Neuve.
