3. The registration Process

3.1. Registration

It is possible to register as a member of the ADMH directly at the Hergé museum welcome desk, via the IPAD provided.

Alternatively it is possible to register by filling in the online form available at the following website address : <https://www.museeherge.com/en/admh> following the reception of the completed form, the ADMH will ask the prospective member to pay the membership fee by bank transfer.

When the membership fee is received the member will be sent an e-mail including the membership rules and providing further information regarding membership benefits.

Each membership is only valid for a single person. All benefits are strictly reserved for this person.

3.2. Subscription annulment

The ADMH team reserves the right to annul membership in the case of non-adherence to the rules. Access to the ADMH website will be blocked and the member will be informed by e-mail. In the case of subscription annulment no membership fees will be reimbursed.

3.3. The membership period

Registration via the Hergé museum : registration is immediate and valid for one year from the date of registration and payment.

Registration online : the duration of membership is for one year, from the first day of the reception of the membership fee.

The membership period can be extended by one year; members wishing to do so should contact the ADMH team and pay any further membership fees required.

4. Confidentiality

4.1. Members are requested to keep their login details secret, and not to communicate them to others. Each member is provided with a unique set of login details. The admh team may use various technical means to detect the fraudulent use of these details. Communicating login details to a third party may result in membership being annulled (article 3.2).

4.2. All personal details provided to the ADMH team during the subscription process will be held in the strictest confidence and in no case will details be passed on to third parties. This being the case, if there is no written request to the contrary, the information may be used by Moulinsart SA, by SPRL Retail Adventures and by Studios Hergé ASBL for promotional purposes.

LA CROIX DE L'AIGLE complies with the law of 30 July 2018 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and with the European General Regulation on the Protection of Personal Data.

Under the law and regulations, the subscriber has the right to consult, delete, modify or correct the data concerning him/her by sending an e-mail to admh@museeherge.com.

Once the subscription is completed and in case of non-renewal, your data will be deleted.

4.3. The ADMH team may communicate with all members via e-mail. Members are obliged to inform the ADMH team of any change in e-mail address.

5. Website

As no protection system is 100% reliable and networks can suffer from a wide variety of technical problems, members may not hold the webmaster or ADMH team to account in the event that the website has to close for any length of time, due to such problems.

The ADMH forum is for private access by ADMH members only. The ADMH administration reserves the right to delete comments judged to be hurtful, racist, Homophobic, etc.

6. Sponsor your friends members

Who sponsor three friends to join the ADMH will receive one year's free membership, coming into effect in the year following their current membership.
