

LE PETIT Vingt-et-unième

America
Special

AL CAPONE WHO WERE YOU?

Our special envoy reveals the hidden side of this bloodthirsty gangster, nicknamed "Scarface", who was rampant in the city of Chicago which became lawless under his control. A sensational encounter from the past with the man from hell!

TRUMP

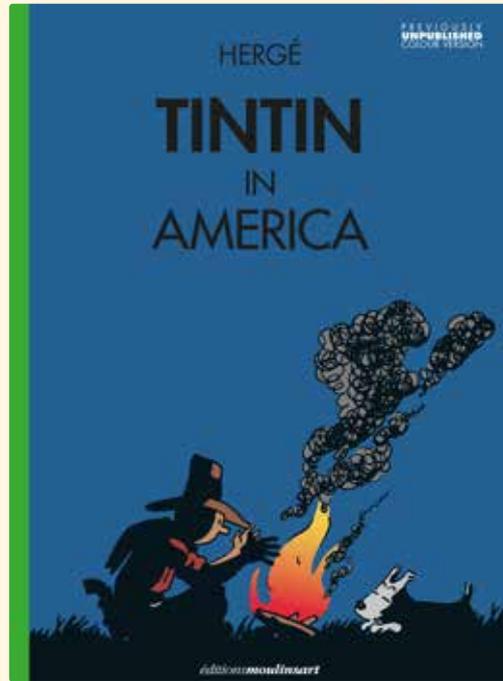

Who can beat the incumbent of the White House in the next elections in the United States?

Continues on page 8

SPECIAL DOSSIER:

The virus of firearms in the United States, 393 million firearms for 327 million people... What is the attraction? Snowy is following a lead.

Continues on page 2

TINTIN IN AMERICA!

At the time of its creation, Tintin in America was an experimental book of modern times depicting the American phenomenon: the Depression, corruption, prohibition and gangsterism, urbanization and over-industrialisation, oil and gas and the dispossessed Indians. Under this denunciation of excess is also hidden a fascination for modernity and progress. In this year of the American elections and the centenary of Prohibition, the original edition of Tintin in America is presented in colour.

AMERICA FIRST!

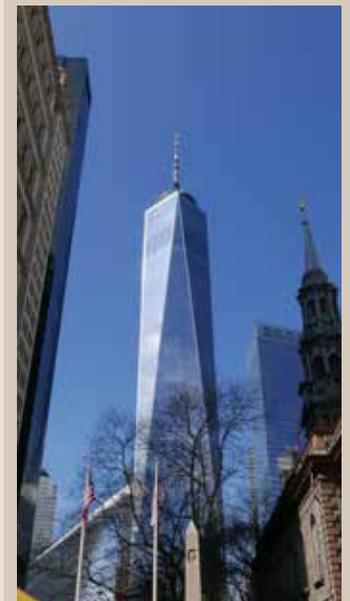

Would Realpolitik score any points? A political strategy, based on the art of dealing, breaching the fundamentals of international diplomacy. Our survey, below, intends to take stock of this radical change in relations between States.

THE DRY CRUSADE

This year marks the 100th anniversary of this historic moment of ratification by a large majority of American States of the Amendment which prohibited the manufacture, transportation and sale of alcoholic drinks. The editorial staff will return to this fantastic adventure of Prohibition with an unpublished interview with J.M. Dawson...

THE BIG APPLE, A SOUR TASTE

New York on the edge of collapse! The city where everything is possible! Will everyone's hopes be dashed, or will they survive and bounce back? Continues on 1